

Please keep the do not call list as it is. I enjoy more quiet meals at home than ever before. I understand that the banks want to drum up more business but why can't they use mail instead???